(IAC-D-81/12, 14 July 1955)

b. Appointment of members and alternates to the ad hoc Committee are to be communicated to the IAC Secretary.

c. CIA is to take the necessary steps to organize the Committee pending the appointment by the IAC of a Chairman and Secretary.

d. It is the intention of the IAC that the ad hoc Committee concentrate primarily, if not exclusively, on the problem of getting guided missile intelligence on the Sino-Soviet Bloc.

5. Fourth Revision of EIC Report on Communist China's Trade and Transport: EIC-R1-S4
(IAC-D-42/11, 12 July 1955)

a. Approved.

b. Admiral Espe approved the report and stated that he considered the estimates contained therein as good as could be made on the basis of present intelligence. He noted that transportation figures on shipping were reasonably firm, that those on overland and total trade were less firm. He therefore asked that the record show that he did not wish to be bound by the figures on overland and total trade in the course of the preparation of NIE's subsequently undertaken.

c. Admiral Layton, while noting that the term "capability" was fully defined as used in the report, pointed out that this usage does not conform with standard military usage.

d. All agreed that this was an excellent report, the best yet done. The Chairman asked Dr. Guthe, Chairman of the EIC, to convey the appreciation of the IAC to those who had participated in its preparation.

6. Probable Developments in North Vietnam
(NIE 63.1-55)

Approved as amended. Mr. Kent noted that the map of Indochina (#13906), prepared for inclusion in this estimate, would also be used in the three companion estimates now in preparation (Cambodia, Laos, and South Vietnam).

7. Problem of Soviet Evasion of Any Accepted Disarmament Program

a. The Chairman read a G-2 request (G2-PRES, 15 Jul 55, signed Schow) for a priority special national intelligence estimate which would analyze the ability of the USSR to evade limitations on its armed forces should a disarmament plan be adopted by the major powers.

b. The IAC agreed that, in the absence of a specific proposal, only a short, general estimate could be prepared. Such an estimate might be incorporated in NIE 11-11-55 (Implications for the USSR of a System of International Armaments Control), now in process, provided the present deadline was still met.
